

IN LOVE WITH LITERACY
THE LITERACY COUNCIL OF FREDERICK COUNTY

SHOW YOUR LOVE OF READING AND SUPPORT LITERACY!

The Literacy Council of Frederick County in participation with Frederick County Public Libraries is excited to be hosting our second Read-a-Thon. Anyone from ages 1 to 100 years can participate in this fun and meaningful event.

The event runs from January 1, 2012 until February 11, 2012. Participants commit to read a specified number of books or for a specified amount of time during that period. In advance, you will request pledges from friends and family to sponsor your reading time. The more you read the more money you will raise! Every dollar raised will be used to buy books and other program materials for the students and tutors of the Council. All pledges and monies collected must be turned in by February 11th in order to be considered for prizes. All participants who raise at least $20 will receive a tote bag.

There will be an ending celebration Read-a-Thon in the C. Burr Artz Library Community Room throughout the day on February 11th and we will be providing drinks and snacks to the participants during the event. Prizes will be awarded in various categories such as most books read or most donations raised and we will also have drawings for door prizes donated to the event by local merchants. Prize winners will be announced that afternoon as well. Come join us for a fun event!
