

Spring 2020 Volunteer Information Sessions & Tutor Training Workshops

Volunteer Information Sessions

Come learn about the Literacy Council and ways to get involved!

Note: All sessions are currently being offered as Zoom calls. An email will be sent with specific instructions following online registration at the link below.

Thursday, May 28 3:00 - 4:00 p.m. (Virtual Zoom Call)

Additional sessions after May 28 will be added to the schedule once it is determined when the Literacy Council office will reopen to the public.

Tutor Training Workshops

Experienced tutor trainers will help prepare you to tutor an adult English Language Learner or Basic Literacy (native English speaker) student. Completion of a Volunteer Information Session and both Workshop days is required.

Tutor Training Workshops are postponed until further notice. Please check back for updates. Thank you for your patience!

Please register for Volunteer Information Sessions and Tutor Training Workshops on our website at: <https://www.frederickliteracy.org/volunteer/volunteer-registration-form/>
Dates are also listed on our events calendar: <https://www.frederickliteracy.org/events/>

For more information about eligibility and registration process, please contact our office at (301) 600-2066 or staff@frederickliteracy.org

Literacy lifts Lives

GREATER WASHINGTON

