

Volunteer Information Sessions & Tutor Training Workshops

Volunteer Information Sessions

Come learn about the Literacy Council and ways to get involved!

Note: All sessions are currently being offered as Zoom calls. An email will be sent with specific instructions following online registration at the link below.

Wednesday, January 6 10:00–11:00 a.m. (will be conducted online with invitation sent after registration)

Monday, January 11 7:00–8:00 p.m. (will be conducted online with invitation sent after registration)

Monday, February 1 7:00-8:00 p.m. (will be conducted online with invitation sent after registration)

Monday, February 8 11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon (will be conducted online with invitation sent after registration)

Tutor Training Workshops

Experienced tutor trainers will help prepare you to tutor an adult English Language Learner or Basic Literacy (native English speaker) student. Completion of a Volunteer Information Session is required before attending a Tutor Training Workshop.

Saturday, January 23 & 30, 2021 9:00 a.m.–2:30 p.m. (Must attend both sessions. Sessions will be conducted on Zoom with invitation sent after registration.)

Tuesday & Thursday, February 16, 18, 23, 25 7:00–9:00 p.m. (Must attend all four sessions. Sessions will be conducted on Zoom with invitation sent after registration.)

Please register for Volunteer Information Sessions and Tutor Training Workshops on our website at: <https://www.frederickliteracy.org/volunteer/volunteer-inquiry-registration-form/> Dates are also listed on our events calendar: <https://www.frederickliteracy.org/events/>

For more information about eligibility and registration process, please contact our office at (301) 600-2066 or info@frederickliteracy.org

