Students in our program have FREE access to Learning Upgrade, a self-paced mobile app to introduce and reinforce skills in reading, comprehension, and math. This program offers over 1,020 lessons and 22 courses that work on smartphones, tablets, and desktops/laptops. All of our students, ESL and pre-GED, are encouraged to use this app in addition to classes or tutoring.

Workplace Literacy Classes: *

*These classes are offsite, employer sponsored classes facilitated by the Literacy Council's Workplace Literacy Program. Learn more about our Workplace Literacy Classes for restaurant, housekeeping and other job sectors! Contact Kim Brown, Workplace Coordinator, kbrown@frederickliteracy.org or (301) 600-2066

All classes are currently being conducted online. The Literacy Council of Frederick County is located at 110 E. Patrick Street, Frederick, Maryland (next to the Admin. Entrance to the C. Burr Artz Library). For more information about eligibility and registration procedures for new students, please contact our office at (301) 600-2066 or info@frederickliteracy.org
