Tutor Email to Parent of Basic Student

"H" and I had a great session yesterday. We completed the Laubach lesson we were working on and started working off-script on a more challenging simple story about a Taylor Swift concert. I used Chat GPT as a foundation and I changed up some of the content to make it more recognizable with local references for Frederick.

There were definitely words that she struggled with; however, I am working with her to use the technique from the curriculum to start sounding out the words she doesn't know. I sent her home with some homework and asked her to read to you.

Parent response:

"H" is really enjoying working with you & guess what!?!?? She used your method yesterday to read a word & she read it! The word was kindness and I'm not gonna lie – I about cried!
